

India and the United Nations Millennium Development Goals

This six-part lecture series is the culmination of the Fulbright-Hays Group Projects Abroad to India. The presenters participated in a successful five-week program to India and developed discipline-based curriculum projects on India, which will be presented as a lecture. All lectures will be 1-hour long, on Wednesdays, from 12:30-1:30 p.m. at Richland College room SH118.

Feb. 1 Creating a Context for Understanding
India: An overview of the Fulbright-Hays GPA in India
Aditi Samarth, Humanities

Feb. 8 A Multimedia Immersion into India
Robert Galindo, Photography

Feb. 15 Gender Relationships and Communication
Artist Thornton, Speech Communication

Feb 22 India: A Sustainable Society?
Pamela Ice, English and Cultural Studies

Feb 29 Women and Society
Noeli Biggs, Model UN

March 7 Challenges for India: Population,
Pollution, and Poverty
Craig Pavlue, English

*This lecture series is a part of the US Department of Education funded Fulbright Hays Group Projects Abroad for year 2011-2012.
For more information, please contact Aditi Samarth at asamarth@dcccd.edu*

Richland College

DALLAS COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT

Teaching, Learning, Community Building
12800 Abrams Road | Dallas, Texas 75243-2199

For more information, contact Project Director
Aditi Samarth at ASamarth@dcccd.edu or 972-238-6288.