

ASIA Lecture Series

The Asian Studies program at Richland College presents the following lectures to promote student and staff understanding of the Middle Eastern and Islamic cultures.

April 7th, Wednesday

An Introduction to Lebanon,
Dr. Sam Obeid, instructor, Mathematics

April 9th, Friday

Travelogue from Syria and Jordan,
Dr. Sherry Dean, executive dean, Humanities, Fine and Performing Arts

April 12th, Monday

Ancient and Modern: Persia and Iran
Nasim Vandehvar, Richland College student and music instructor

April 14th, Wednesday

A Portrait of Turkey
Eren Can, CCID exchange student from Turkey

April 16th, Friday

Everyday Life in Egypt
Ahmed Ghazy, CCID exchange student from Egypt

Room B111
11:20 a.m. - 12:10 p.m.

For additional information, please contact Professor Aditi Samarth at 972-238-6288 or asamarth@dcccd.edu.

Richland College

DALLAS COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT

Teaching, Learning, Community Building
12800 Abrams Road | Dallas, Texas 75243-2199

An equal opportunity institution.

www.richlandcollege.edu/asia