

“Connections” Study Skills Workshops

These workshops are presented to broaden students’ study skills and resources.

Please read the following carefully.

- We are limited to 15 students per session.
- Students should be very close to college level in reading, writing, listening and speaking.
- Students may register for only two workshops at a time. (No students, you may not come the next day and register for two more. Be reasonable!)
- Students may register within two weeks prior to the workshop they choose.
- Registration early is not required, but students on the waiting list may not get in.
- Students may attend each topic session only one time each semester.

The Center for Tutoring and Learning Connections is located at Medina 216.
Phone is 972-238-6226

Workshops take place in the Center, M 216
