UNITED NATIONS ASSOCIATION of the United States of America
AND THE BUSINESS COUNCIL FOR THE UNITED NATIONS

11 March 2008

Dr. Steve Mittelstet
President, Richland College
12800 Abrams Road
Dallas, TX 75243-2199

Dear Dr. Mittelstet,

It is very gratifying to know about the excellent collaboration between Richland College, UNA-USA Dallas Chapter and the Lecroy Center for Education Telecommunications in implementing the "Model United Nations" and the "Going Global with the UN" videos in Dallas, TX.

UNA-USA is pleased to acknowledge that the community of Dallas is the pioneer in and only the second state in the country to cablecast the "Going Global with the UN" video series, which is produced by the Westchester Chapter (NY) of UNA-USA. With the support of Lecroy Center for Education Telecommunications, Richland College earned the distinction of becoming the first institution to stream the "Going Global with the UN" videos online worldwide.

Congratulations to Richland College, Lecroy Center for Education Telecommunications, the Dallas Chapter of UNA-USA and the City of Dallas for this remarkable initiative. I specially want to express my gratitude and appreciation to you as president of Richland College and to Pamela Quinn, President/Assistant Chancellor of Lecroy Center for Educational Telecommunications, for supporting your respective staff in such an important project for the Dallas community.

None of this would have taken place without the dedication and commitment of Noeli Piccoli Biggs, Richland College Program Services Coordinator, and Beth Weems Pirtle, 2006 president of UNA-USA Dallas Chapter. Ms. Biggs has also provided us a list of the names of the other individuals involved; please accept this letter as my appreciation and gratitude to them, as well.

Thank you again for your leadership in stimulating and providing opportunities for your staff to make this project a huge success, and thereby enhancing the Dallas community's role in making a difference in our world.

Sincerely yours,

William H. Luers
President
