

CITY OF DALLAS

Special Recognition

WHEREAS, Richland College, the LeCroy Center for Education Telecommunications and the Dallas Chapter of UNA-USA collaborated to implement the "Model United Nations" at Richland College and to broadcast the "Going Global with the UN" videos in Dallas, Texas; and

WHEREAS, Richland College and the LeCroy Center earned the distinction of becoming the first institution worldwide to stream the "Going Global with the UN" videos on-line; and

WHEREAS, the City of Dallas earned the distinction of becoming the second city to have cable access to the "Going Global with UN" videos due to this important initiative; and

WHEREAS, the "Going Global with the UN" videos are available during the year to half a million Dallas viewers through Dallas County Community College's educational cable TV and online to millions of citizens on the World Wide Web; and

WHEREAS, Richland College, the LeCroy Center and UNA-USA Dallas chapter were the recipients of the Earl Eames Award 2008 due to the "Going Global with the UN" videos initiative.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, TOM LEPPERT, mayor of the city of Dallas, and on behalf of the Dallas City Council, do hereby extend special recognition to

NOELI PICCOLI BIGGS

International Programs Coordinator at Richland College, for her valuable service in promoting international understanding to citizens in the Dallas community and beyond.

_____
Mayor, City of Dallas

